1- Number of vacancies filled against the recruitment of 17,000 plus posts of different categories.

3- Please provide the action taken on the aforementioned order dated 21 October 2024 of high court of judicature by the public authority.

4- Right to Information Act 2005 was introduced by government of India to promote transparency and accountability in the working of public authorities and this act was published in 2005 and it is 2025 which means more than 19 years passed but most unfortunate thing is that public information officers are not providing information within stipulated 30 days which is a mockery of the provisions of the right to information act 2005.

It is most surprising that a public staff Whose rank is of Deputy general manager NDC does not know the prescribed time to provide information to the information seekers is a matter of serious concern and I think that accountable staff of the government must meditate on it.

To ensure transparency and accountability in the government machinery, this act was introduced so that growing corruption in the government machinery could be controlled, but instead of controlling the corruption of government machinery the rampant corruption in the government machinery itself diluted the provisions of right to information act 2005.

6- Total number of vacancies- 17291, State Program Management Unit, National Health Mission, Uttar Pradesh NOTIFICATION, Dated: 13.12.2022 This is in reference to advertisement no 642/SPMU/NHM/2022-23/6200 dated 26.11.2022 regarding recruitment of 17000 plus Contractual vacancies of ANM, Staff Nurse, Lab Technician & Pharmacist- Allopathic under various Programs of NHM, UP Waitlist for the aforesaid advertised contractual Positions will be valid till next six months from the date of declaration of Provisional Result. If any new vacancies arise for any districts for aforesaid advertised positions OR any new position arise having same advertised essential qualification and same maximum upper cap of honoraria during this period, same will be filled up from the existing waitlist.

Most respected sir both public information officer and first appellate authority made the mockery of the provisions of right to information act 2005 so harsh steps must be taken under section 20 of RTI actor 2005 against PIO and disciplinary action against FAA.
